

I am vehemently opposed to the broad ownership of the media services that are being considered by the FCC and expect to vote on in June. I live in an area where media ownership is confined to three companies and it is very difficult to get broad and objective coverage. This is unfair to the public and limits our access to information and fair programming choices.